GOVERNOR WILLIAMS has appointed D. W. Voorhees to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate occasioned by Senator Morton's death.

THE indications are that the total vote of the State will reach 575,000, nearly 200,000 less than last year. The greenback-labor vote will aggregate between 50,000 and 60,000.

THE SOUTH has a peculiar way of doing things. At a recent fair in Red River county, Texas, they opened the fair by a procession with a triumphal car, containing a young lady to represent every State in the Union. Pennsylvania was represented by Mrs. Bell Devor, formerly of this county. The fair wound up with a fight between a bear and eight dogs, bruin whipping the whole lot.

THE HOUSE has passed the Silver bill by a large majority. This bill makes the silver dollar, though worth four cents less than a greenback dollar and six cents less than a gold dollar, a legal tender for all debts. It is a pity that legislation upon financial matters could not be placed on a body of men who had some knowledge of the subject. As a general thing politicians and lawyers are poor fluanciers except in so far as caring for their individual interest is concerned. They make a great hue and cry about the" dollar of our daddles," but if they only had some of the sense of their daddies the people generally would have a chance to handle more dollars. This continual tinkering at the finances upsets every one's calculations and has a tendency to keep all business at a stand

If Congress, after passing the appropriation bills, would ajourn with a guarantee that it would not convene again for two years, we believe the money troubles would be settled by the people in a satisfactory manner.

ON TUESDAY last elections were held in twelve states. New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippl, Virginia and Wisconsin elected State officers and legislatures. Massachusetts, Mississippi and Wisconsin also voted upon proposed Constitutional Amendments. Kansas, Nebraska, and Pennsylvania elected State officers, but not members of the Legislature. Connecticut elected State Senators and Representatives and county sheriff.

Pennsylvania has given a Democratic majority on the whole State ticket of from 5 to 9,000.

New Jersey has gone Democratic, General McClellan being elected Governor by about 9,000.

Maryland has also gone Democratic by probably 25,000 majority. In Connecticut the result favors the Republicans. The Legislature chosen will possibly elect a United States Senator to succeed Senator Barnum.

In Virginia and Mississippi no Republican ticket was run, and of course the Democrats had it all their own way.

Massachusetts re-lects Gov. Rice, by an increased Republican majority of about 10,000 over the vote of last year.

In Minnesota the Democrat and Greenback parties united but the Republicans carry the State over both the fusion and the Prohibitory ticket.

New York elects the Democratic State ticket by about 15,000. The Legislature will be Republican by a small majority.

Wisconsin goes Republican by about 5,000. The Greenbackers in that State east about 30,000 votes.

Nebraska goes Republican by 4,000 or 5,000 majority.

Rather an Unpleasant Test.

A party a few dayssince left New York to test a fire extinguisher, and had singular experience. The steamer Thomas Hunt, with about fifty persons, left Pier 16, East river, at noon, and proceeded to Prince's bay, Staten Island, where the extinguishers are manufactured. At this point an abandoned canal boat was to be used for the experiments. The hold of the boat was partitioned off into sections, one of which was filled with combustible material. To make sure of a hot fire, two barrels of petroleum were poured into the section by over-zealous workmen. The extinguishing apparatus being arranged, a torch was lighted and thrust into the hole. The petroleum exploded instantly, blowing the old canal boat into a thousand pieces. Some thirty persons were standing upon the boat, and, singularly enough, only two were injured. They were James Quinn, a laborer, who was cut about the head and his legs badly bruised, and a reporter for the World, who received a severe gash on the chiu. The fire extinguishing apparatus consists of iron cylinders charged with liqulfied carbonic acid gas. An oil tank instantly extinguished. It is proposed to give another trial of it at an early day, when those interested will have a better chance to judge of its merits.

A Woman Burned to Death.

The farm house on what is known as the Major farm, in Derry township, Mifflin county, and occupied by Joseph Huffnagle, was discovered to be on fire about 5 o'clock on Saturday a week, by Mr. John Miller, who was on his way to work at Logan. On reaching the house, Mr. Miller discovered Mr. Huffnagle inside the front room, and succeeded in rescuing him and two children in an insensible condition. Mrs. Huffnagle was up stairs, and was heard to ery for help, but those who had reached the burning building were unable to render her any assistance, and she was burned to death in the house, which was entirely consumed, together with all of Mr. Huffnagle's household goods. He was considerably but not seriously

One Flash of Lightning.

The town of Richardson and vicinity was visited by a severe lightning storm Sunday evening a week. A Mr. Stone, living one and a half miles from town, fearing that the lightning might strike his house, grasped his little boy in his arms and called to his wife to follow, started to a hole dug in the ground and covered, about one hundred yards from the residence. They had got about half way, when a bolt struck the father and child, killing them instantly. Mrs. Stone was thrown several yards, and lay for some time insensible. The shoes and clothing on Stone and his child were literally torn into shreds .- Galveston News.

Dilemma of a Tramp.

A tramp, who tried to steal a ride from Cheyenne, Wyoming, to Green river, on the top of one of Jarrett & Palmer's cars recently, had a terrible experience. The rapid motion of the car compelled him to wind his arms and legs round a stove pipe, and hang on for dear life, and his coat and hat were carried away by the force of the wind. The burning-cinders pierced his clothes like bullets, and cut and scorched his hands and face, so that, when he reached Green river, the terror, exhaustion and pain had made his hair turn € In Alabama two white penitentiary convicts escaped from Mr. J. W. Comer about two weeks since in a singular way. On of them had been given some arsenic to put upon a fistula on a horse's neck. Instead of putting it there, however, he put it in his pocket, and when he and his comrade got the chance to run away they threw down on their tracks pieces of meat on which this arsenic was sprinkled. As the dogs would come upon the meat they devoured it, of course, all the dogs in consequence soon got sick and quit the drive. Two of them have died. The convicts thus far have eluded capture, and Mr. Andrew Johnson, Mr. Comer's agent, who went in pursuit of them immediately upon their escape, has not since been heard from.

A farmer in Chester county, Pa., prosecuted three hunters for trespassing on his premises, for which they were fined. The retallated on him by telling him they would give him thirty days time to remove all the noxious weeds from off his farm, and, in case he did not, they would institute suit against him for a violation of a special law for Chester county, which is punishable with a fine of $50. The farmer, taking the hint, has four men busily engaged in cutting and pulling weeds.

The New Jersey Republican, published at Hackensack, devotes over four columns in its last issue to further exposures of the so-called Rev. Mr. Phillips, who officiated at the Raptist Church in that village a short time. It says that he deserted a wife and two children in Monongahela City, this State, was arrested and convicted in Ohio for robbing a public library, and accuses him of gross obscenity in London, England.

Francis M. Dowlin, of East Brandywine, Chester county, while working in his cornfield, cocked his gun and leaned it up against a shock. Shortly afterward, forgetting his gun, he went to strike the shock with his corn-knife, when he hit the trigger of the gun and the contents entered his breast killing him almost instantly.

A policeman hunting in a Sharon, Conn., house for Charles Lockwood, who had broken out of the Litchfield jail, was just about giving it up when he saw a human nose sticking out of the cellar earth under his feet. Further search showed that Lockwood was neatly buried, and that the officer had been unwittingly standing on his breast.
